The Finchem Floor amendment to the FR Committee amendment:

1) Confirms the bill does not limit the rights of any Indian Tribal lands, reservations or lands acquired through land settlement claims.

2) Instructs the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives to appoint a legislative committee to consider the request for approval as follows:
   a. if approved, a joint resolution is prepared for approval of the sale.
   b. if not approved, the state has the right of first refusal to purchase the private property.

3) Requires any state agency personnel having knowledge that the U.S. Department of the Interior is placing Arizona private property in trust as part of a Tribe’s land claim settlement to notify officials so the Legislature may respond through comment, administrative appeal or appropriate court action.

4) Grants to the State of Arizona the right of first refusal to purchase private property that the Federal government is obtaining through a sale, gift, grant or other transfer of ownership.

5) Requires the process to be conducted in a timely manner.
